SUPREME COURT. 2nd January.

IN SUMMARY JURISDICTION. BEFORE MR. A. G. WICE, ACTING PUISNE JUDGE, AND A SPECIAL JUEY. WEBBER V. BRANDT.

This was an action for $1,000 damages for lleged slander. was for the plaintiff; and the defendant con. client. ducted his own case.

The jurors were Messrs. E. R. Belilios. G. C. Anderson and J. Grant Smith. Mr. Phillippo said this was an action brought by the plaintiff, a solicitor practising in this colony, against Oscar Brandt, a commission agent. The slauder complained of was uttered in the Registry of the Court on the 2nd December.

The petition of the plaintiff was as follows:-1.—The plaintiff is a s ligitor of the Supremo Court f Hongkong and is engaged in the practice of his profession in Vistoria in this colony. 2.—The defendant is a commission agent

ant at the Supreme Court House in the presence ing the plaintiff, while the plaintiff was actually engaged in the practice of his said profession as a soliritor, the words following-" Obtaining money under meaning thereby that the plaintiff was a choat and had defrauded persons, whereby the plaintiff has been greatly injured in his credit and to the discoutation And the said John Francis Webber claims damages

1.—The defendant admits paragraph 1 of the plain-

age at of Victoria, Hongkong. 3.—In reply to paragraph 3 of the said petition the defendant denies that he undo use of th; words obtaining money under false pretances" of and concerning the plaintiff upon the occasion mentioned in better got it. The slander uttered by the defendant. the said paragraph, but admits that he made use of | dant bad done him harm. "He had const words to a somewhat similar effect, and the defendant denies that he said of and concerning the plaintiff that the plaint if was a fraud as alloged either on the 4. In further reply the defendant save the w. rds so spoken by the defendant of and conce ming the intiff were privileged, insemuch as they were addressed on public officer, the Deputy Registrar of this Honorable Court, acting in the performance of a public duty in which the plaintiff and the defendant were personally interested. And the defendant further says that the words so sporen by the defendant as aforesaid of and concorning the plaintiff were and are true. And the defendant further says that plaintiff has inffered no damage

C. F. A. Sengster, Deputy Registrar of the Supreme Court, said-I remember on the 2nd December some words passing between plaintiff and defendant on the occasion of my taxing the bill of costs in the case of Samuel v. Brandt The words used were either "obtaining "-or "getting"-" money andar false pretences." M: Wobber was present atothe time in the practice of his profession. He was ppearing on behalf Mr. Samuel for the purpose of taxing a bill Cross-axamined by Mr. Brandt-Was not the bill re-taxed? - Yes, it was on the second occasion that these words were spoken. I'm you tell me why that bill came to be taxed a second time ?- I do not know what conversation took place between you and Mr. Webber, but the Registrar said I had better tax the bill sgain as you were not present on the first occasion. Did Mr. Webber give you any reason for my not being present ?-No. Did he say he had given me notice?-I asked him if you had had notice and he said you had As you did not appear I proceeded with the taxation. There is one entry on the bill, "drawing and engrossing a writ of summons 32." another "attending the issue of same. St. Did Mr. Webber say anything to you about those items f-No. They were allowed. Did Mr. Webber apply for execution under ed here in good faith. On account of large that judgment?-The application was made to the office in the usual way. You received instructions from the Registrar to tax the Bill again ?- Yes, and I did so on the 2nd December : I asked you what objectious you Directly; said I considered that if Mr. Webber had attended to obtain the copy of the writ of summous, it taxed. I afterwards sent a letter to amounted to the same thing and I allowed the ber asking to have the costs taxed.

Were not the words that I used, that this was an indisputable trick to get, money out of me by Webber saying the costs were taxed this taxation ?- No. Did I not say that Mr. Webber had gone be 29th November. I saw Mr. Webber hind my back? - I think you did, but I cannot be certain. I only remember distinctly your saying something as to obtaining money under false pretences. When everything was said "If you don't may up, I shall tak finished Mr. Webber asked me if I had heard the words " frand" and " obtaining money under is among the number accused of entering into false pretences" used. I said I had heard the words " obtaining money under false pretences but not the word "fraud

In re-exemination the witness said he taxed a good many bils and if only one party was present he proceeded with the taxation if he was satisfied the other side had notice. In the review of the taxation, he did not make any alteration on his first taxing. John Francis Webber, plaintiff, said- never been done. I said it was a delibering evel do not fread upon each other's heels

The first taxation took place on the 28th tempt of Mr. Webber's to get more to have no great floods or famines to November. There was a second taxation of me by means of a trick behind me oport. "SOUTHERN CROSS" "NEW YORK, 29th November Captain Bailey and the first mte of the ship Southern Cross had a hearing bfore a United States Commissioner, to-day on charge of killing Ah Sow, the Chinese steward of the ship "on a recent voyage to Sydney. They were at mitted to bail. From stories pld-by them it seems that the Chinaman wer crazy, looked himself in the galley, and when the crew tried to get him out he fired two shot, wounding the mate and a sailor. The captairand mate then, with the ides of frightening his, fired two shot through the door, and the crei broke in. A Sow was found dead with a bil in his heart " I'be mate told me of the troute," said Captair Bailey restorday. "I went tothe gilley and found the doors and windows parded up, and heard—the cook inside thrashing around and smashing things all to pi-ce. I called on to the cook to open the doors and get break fast ready for the crew. He replied with an oath that he would die first. Ve attempted to force the doors. The cook opened a small downed hastily emptied a retover at us. I heard him say: "I'll blow up the ship and fix. man aboard if I have I die myself." We all realized that the man vas maddened from excessive use of opium. . The cargo in the hold consisted of twelve and ce-half tons of curtifidges and barrels of nitrollycerine, gunpowder, and gasoline. We realigd that it would he an easy task for the oras Chinaman to execute his disbolical threat. A minute later we heard the Chinaman chopping away at the dook. He had in his hands a poprful axe, which was used in the galley for choping wood. The galley was located immediately ipr the cargo. and it was only a matter of a fewninutes work for the cook to cut a hole through the deck and drop a burning brand into the bd. We made another attempt to force the doors ading into the galley, and were met with a volley shots from the Chinaman's revolver, every one the bullets penetrating the door. I realizedhat immediate then armed myself with my riffend began firing Dreibund.

The cook to had a plential ENGLISH POLICY IN EGYPT ENDUESED BY THE ful supply of ammunition, rarned the shots. At length the firing from with ceased and after waiting a few minutes we aret in the door We found the Chinsman lyit dead upon the middle of the galley floor. I had cut a hole through the deck and had everpreparation made to blow up the vessel. Looky down into the hold we could see the barrs of gasoline and the cases of cartridges." following facts are submitted for consideration :--Chalmers' Vocabulary contains about 16,000 Chinese characters, and Medhurst's English and Chinese Dictionary shout 100,000, whilst this work contains more than 50,000 English words, and upwards of 600,000 Chinese characters. Again, despite all the grammars and other elementary works as yet published, the student of this difficult language absolutely requires examples to display the various appli-cations and equivalents of different words which have one general meaning. Of these examples this work contains more than five times as many as any other Dictionary bitheric pub-

For practical purposes the arrangement of the work is so complete, that a reference to its pages enables a person who understands English. to communicate effectively with natives who understand nothing but Chinese. In this respect the work will be found indispensable to all Europeans residing in China, and to the natives themselves, it explains subjects fully with which very few indeed of their are perfectly acquainted. To parties resident in England and interested in China it cannot but be invaluable occasion-
